CHARLES GRECH

SINCE 1881

Café

THE HOUSE OF CHARLES GRECH

The House of Charles Grech was founded in March 1881 by Charles Grech, who decided to settle in his homeland after a distiguished career in the British royal navy. He chose the fashionable main street of Valletta, then called Strada Reale, later Kingsway and now Republic Street to open his business.

The front of the establishment was a luxury tobacconist selling the finest tobacco and imported premium cigars. The middle room housed a very exclusive "sampling bar" which for many years was patronised by local businessmen and senior officers of the armed forces. The back room was the office where the main activity was that of ship chandler and supplier to ships especially those of the royal navy and the United States 6th fleet.

To date Charles Grech still houses the finest cigars, tobacco and whiskies together with an extensive wine collection and a walk in humidor with a superior selection of Cuban Cigars.
